

Neumob, Inc.

February 9, 2018

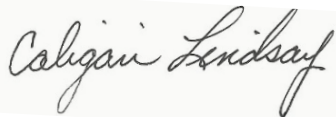

To: Stockholders of Neumob, Inc.

Subject: Assignment for Benefit of Creditors and Stockholder Distribution

As Neumob has no further potential asset recoveries and there is a secured lender that has not been paid in full, the Assignee is unaware of any likelihood of a distribution being available to stockholders. At this time, the Assignee will update the Assignment Claims Web Site to include language to this effect and will create and post an Equity Write Off Letter, which stockholders can provide to their tax advisor to support their tax position; this letter will be dated 12/31/17, as the ABC took place in 2017, and it was known by that date that no distribution was likely. We will provide you with a copy of this letter as well for your reference.
